

CURRICULUM VITAE

Energy Transition & Circular Economy in the Port of Amsterdam

Henri Van Der Weide

Senior Policy Advisor, Harbour Master's Department, Port of Amsterdam

Professional Experiences

- 2009 – Present : Senior Policy Advisor, Harbour Master's Department, Port of Amsterdam, the Netherlands
- 2002 – 2009 : Manager, Department Dangerous Cargo, Port of Amsterdam, the Netherlands
- 2001 – 2002 : Deputy Manager, Department Dangerous Cargo, Port of Amsterdam, the Netherlands
- 1991 – 2000 : Inspector, Department Dangerous Cargo, Port of Amsterdam, the Netherlands
- 1990 – 1991 : Technical Advisor, Radio Holland Group, Rotterdam, the Netherlands
- 1986 – 1990 : Merchant Officer, Nedlloyd and Jo Tankers, Aboard Product-and Chemical Tankers, Worldwide

Others :

- 2017 – Present : Chair Port Environment Committee of IAPH
- 2013 – 2017 : Vice-Chair Port Environment Committee IAPH
- 2010 – Present : Member of the Core-Team of the Environmental Ship Index (ESI)

Fields of Expertise, a.o. :

- Dangerous Cargo, Handling of These Cargoes in Port Areas & External Safety.
- Waste, Port Reception Facilities, Ballast Water
- Port Bye-Laws
- Ship-ship Transfer
- Ships' Emissions (NO_x, SO_x, Pm, CO₂, VOC), Project Clean Shipping Vision 2030 in Port of Amsterdam

Educational Background

- 1987 : Marine Engineer, Nautical Academy Rotterdam, the Netherlands
- 1986 : Navigating Officer, Nautical Academy Rotterdam, the Netherlands
- 1982 : Pre-university Degree, College at Gouda, the Netherlands