(Session 3) From Bottlenecks to Breakthroughs: Financing Solutions for the Global Port and Maritime Sector

Rajesh SUBRAMANIAN, Director, Transport & Logistics, APAC, ING

Rajesh has been a part of ING's Transport & Logistics sector coverage team since 2022. In his role as the Lead for shipping energy transition, he oversees the climate alignment of ING's global shipping loan book against credible decarbonisation scenarios. With over 2 decades of experience in the shipping, he works with ING's global teams to embed the sustainability objectives into the decision making of ING's shipping finance activities. His role involves engaging with shipping clients to understand their transition plans and identifying opportunities for ING to support their progress. Rajesh represents ING in the steering committee of the Poseidon Principles and serves as the Chair of the Technical Committee of the Principles.
