

Biography

Seouri Sung
Biography	Seouri Sung is a seasoned professional in the maritime industry with nearly a decade of experience. She began her career in 2014 as an Import Coordinator for a freight forwarding company, gaining valuable logistics and supply chain management expertise. In 2015, Seouri joined Long Beach Container Terminal, contributing significantly to the Middle Harbor Redevelopment Project. She played a key role in the 2016 Pier E go-live, testing terminal operating systems and training ILWU longshoremen. Currently, as a Senior Terminal Process Manager in the Operations Development Team, Seouri optimizes terminal processes and enhances operational efficiency. Her efforts have been instrumental in handling the complex demands of modern maritime logistics. Seouri holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Applied Management from Grand Canyon University. Her academic background and extensive industry experience position her as a knowledgeable leader in maritime operations. Seouri Sung's dedication and expertise make her a valuable asset to the Long Beach Container Terminal and the maritime community.